Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—On page 13 it is stated that only about 700 acres have been allotted while in answer to (c) it is stated that 4,414 acres are set apart. What is the reason for not allotting the remaining area?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—The Statement B contains the extent granted to colonists according to the scheme of attracting labourers to that area. Apart from this extent, the Revenue Department has taken steps to distribute lands to other landless people of the locality.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—Supplementary to (f): Has all the land commanded been brought under cultivation?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—No.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—If so, why not Government set apart some more land and invite more persons to come and occupy it on the same terms and develop irrigation as quickly as possible?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—The scheme of attracting labourers has not succeeded to our expectations. Some people had come but went back after some time. Therefore, it is doubtful whether that scheme will be completely successful. Therefore, we are encouraging local landless persons to take land and bring it under cultivation.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—How far have you been successful in that direction?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—The rules were framed some months back and they are distributing lands now. I do not know the exact area so far distributed.

(d) 3 months.

Sri B. N. BORANNA GOWDA.—Supplementary to (c): Since how long are they pending?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—Since about last one year.

Sri B. N. BORANNA GOWDA.—What is the difficulty in investigating this matter?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—Sometimes the Forest Department has to be consulted. Sometimes the Revenue Inspectors are required to hold local enquiry. These are the procedural difficulties.

Sri B. N. BORANNA GOWDA.—What is the kind of enquiry they are holding regarding distribution of land?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—The usual dharkast enquiry.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Is it not a fact that due to this delay in disposing of the applications, there are unauthorised cultivations and occupations?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—I do not agree with that view.

Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—What is the total extent of area involved in the case of individual applicants, what is the maximum acreage applied for?

Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA.—I have not got that information just at present.
